

Massimo Busuoli

Norwegian University of Science and Technology

Head of NTNU Brussels Office (<https://www.ntnu.edu/brussels-office>)

Secretary of Unilion (<http://www.unilion.eu>)

Physicist, Married, two children.

He has worked in ENEA since 1993 first as an active researcher in the field of technology transfer of digital technologies to companies, then as director (from 2006) of the ENEA office in Brussels, arriving to hold the role of Head of European Union & International Organisations Unit

In 2016 he left ENEA to become Director of the Brussels office of the largest Norwegian university: NTNU - Norwegian University of Science and Technology (7000 employees, 40,000 Students).

Active since 1994 in the sector of European projects and affairs, he has held numerous positions of coordination of initiatives of European relevance such as: General Secretary of the European Energy research Alliance (EERA), Chair of the Informal Group of Representative Offices of Research Systems and European Innovation in Brussels (IGLO), founder and Chair of the Informal Group of Italian Representative Offices in Brussels (GIURI).

Expert evaluator for the European Commission, today he also holds the role of Chair of the Universities Informal Liaison Offices Network (UnILiON) of which he was co-founder in 2017.